Acheson Accuses Russia Of Continuing Korean War

Ike Plans Trip To Korea In Effort To End Fighting

Action Hinges On Election As President

Detroit, (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower pledged last night that he will go to Korea himself in an effort to end the war if he is elected president.

The Republican presidential candidate, in a speech before a cheering crowd in Detroit, said one of the first jobs of a new administration must be to bring a close to the conflict that has been raging since June of 1950. And he declared:

"That job requires a personal trip to Korea. I shall make that trip. Only in that way could I learn how best to serve the American people in the cause of peace. I shall go to Korea."

Eisenhower placed full responsibility for the war on the Truman administration. He said—without naming either the President or Secretary of State Dean Acheson—that they ignored repeated warnings and that they assured inquiring senators that the South Koreans could defend themselves alone.

This was possibly the strongest speech Eisenhower has made, although he has discussed foreign policy in major speeches and in whistle stops in all parts of the country.

He said the war was not inevitable. It resulted, the general added, "from a collapse of our political defenses."

In reviewing events leading up to the war, Eisenhower cited testimony from Congress in 1949 and he quoted from the famous report written by Lt. Gen. Albert Wedemeyer in 1947, but suppressed for more than a year.

Eisenhower said a great error was made when American troops were pulled out of Korea. He recalled that Gen. Wedemeyer returned from the Orient in September, 1947. Eisenhower said Wedemeyer submitted this warning in his report:

"The withdrawal of American military forces from Korea would result in the occupation of South Korea by either Soviet troops or, as seems more likely, by the Korean military units trained under Soviet auspices in North Korea."

Eisenhower said, "that warning and his entire report were disregarded and suppressed by the administration."

He then cited from the record of the debates in Congress in June of 1949 and quoted Congressman Walter Judd, Minnesota Republican as saying in that debate:

"I think the thing necessary to give security to Korea at this stage of the game is the presence of a small American force and the knowledge (on the Soviet side) that attack upon it would bring trouble with us. I am convinced that if we keep even a battalion there they are not going to move. And if the battalion is not there the chances are they will move within a year."

Eisenhower said "the secretary of state," not naming Acheson, was asked if the South Koreans could defend themselves alone. And the general continued:

"To this the secretary answered briskly: 'We share that same view, yes sir.'"

"Rarely in congressional testimony has so much misinformation been compressed so efficiently into so few words."

The GOP candidate referred to a comment by John Davis Lodge, now governor of Connecticut but then a representative, quoting Lodge as having said at the time, "I think the presence of our troops there is a tremendous deterrent to the Russians."

He also noted statements in a minority report of five Republican members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee on July 26, 1949. That report, Eisenhower told his audience, contained the following passages:

"It is reliably reported that Soviet troops attached to the North Korean puppet armies are in position of command as well as acting as advisers. This development may well presage the launching of a full scale military drive across the 38th Parallel."

"Our forces have been withdrawn from South Korea when logic and common sense both demanded no retreat from the realities of the situation."

$100,000 Fire

Jamestown, N.Y. (AP)—A hundred thousand dollar fire last night destroyed a four-story frame building owned by the Davis Junk & Salvage Co. and water damaged two adjoining buildings.

Susan Peters

Courage Gives Out; Crippled Actress Dies

Visalia, Calif. (AP)—Susan Peters, the beautiful young actress who set Hollywood an example of courage after her promising career was blighted by a crippling injury, died Thursday night.

Attending doctors said the physical cause was a kidney ailment arising from a paralyzing rifle wound that had bound her to a wheel chair for almost seven years.

However, Miss Peters' personal physician, Dr. Ray Manchester of nearby Exeter, believes her mental condition may have been a factor.

"She wouldn't allow anyone to help her recently," he said. "I believe she lost interest in living." He said she had been waging a fight against internal infection for years and had been "going down hill" in past months.

The 31-year-old film and stage player was considered one of Hollywood's brightest acting prospects when, on New Year's Day, 1945, tragedy struck. On a hunting trip with her husband, actor Richard Quine, she bent over to pick up a rifle. A twig caught the trigger and the bullet struck her spinal cord.

Hospitalized for months and thereafter confined to a wheelchair, Susan refused to concede that she was through as an actress. Two years later, emoting from her wheelchair, she came back to films, the stage and television.

Coal Owners Appeal Slash

Washington, (AP)—A major portion of the soft coal industry yesterday formally asked Economic Stabilizer Roger Putnam to upset the Wage Stabilization Board and approve the full $1.90 daily wage increase won by John L. Lewis.

Putnam immediately started examining the industry petition which was signed by Harry Moses, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators Association. A spokesman for Putnam said the economic stabilizer would have no immediate comment on the petition.

Lewis' soft coal miners are on a nation-wide strike as a result of the wage board's decision to slice 40 cents off the $1.90 pay raise the industry agreed to grant. The board said the full amount would be inflationary.

Firemen Called To Scott Street

The Stroudsburg Fire Dept. was called to 524 Scott St., Stroudsburg, at 12:35 this morning where paper in a cardboard box had been set afire in the front second floor bedroom. The fire had been extinguished when the firemen arrived and they were not required to go into service.

It was stated by firemen that a girl baby-sitter was in charge of three little children at the time. How the fire was started wasn't learned. Barring excitement, it was stated, no harm had been done.

Two Men Hurt In Plane Crash

Scranton, (AP)—A small plane crashed near the Keyser Valley shops of the Lackawanna Railroad in West Scranton yesterday, critically injuring two men.

Police identified the injured as Kenneth Brown, Presque Isle, Me., and Oscar Earl Basford of Stamford, Conn. Police had a difficult time removing one of the men from the wrecked plane.

Maurice Cawley, foreman at Lackawanna shops near which the plane came down, said he saw the craft circling before it crashed.

Stevenson Says Crusade Collapsed

Troy, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson said last night that Dwight D. Eisenhower's crusade for the presidency has collapsed and that the general has taken "unto himself men so objectionable he cannot bring himself to mention their names."

Stevenson, the Democratic nominee for the White House, said in an address at a rally at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Field House:

"He (Eisenhower) has endorsed the die-hard enemies of social progress. He embraced these men, one by one, and demanded that the American people send them to the Senate of the United States."

Stevenson's sharp criticism of Eisenhower came at the end of a day-long whistle-stop campaign across Upper New York state from Niagara Falls to Albany, and then on to Troy.

At Rochester, N.Y., yesterday the Illinois governor also cut loose at Eisenhower, accusing him of advocating a "slick" Korean War policy which Stevenson said would lead to Munich-like appeasement in the Far East and probably touch off World War III.

In last night's address, Stevenson said that when Eisenhower was nominated he said he was going to cast out of the Republican fold "quack doctors," "fear-mongers" and "bare-faced looters." Then, Stevenson said:

"I mention these words because the day before yesterday, the Republican candidate announced virtuously that he was, in his words, 'leaving to others the job of mud-slinging and name-calling.'"

Stevenson said that as time went on, "the crusader who had spoken of casting out evil men began to take unto himself men so objectionable that he cannot bring himself to mention their names."

The governor himself mentioned no names in making the statement, but he went on to say that Eisenhower has "endorsed the slanderers" of Gen. George C. Marshall.

Stevenson has made it clear during the campaign that such assertions by him allude to GOP Sens. William E. Jenner of Indiana and Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin. Eisenhower has endorsed them and all other Republican nominees for Congress.

Stevenson talked of what he called collapse of Eisenhower's crusade for the White House in this way:

"We must realize, as the election draws near, that one consequence of the collapse of the general's crusade is that the Republican party has told us almost nothing of what it would actually do about any of the major problems before us."

Stevenson said that last Wednesday night Eisenhower discussed the subject of inflation in Troy—from the same platform Stevenson appeared on last night.

"He described the effect inflation has upon the family budget," Stevenson said. "If anything, he underestimated the seriousness of the problem."

"Then he went on to explain what he considered the reasons for inflation. All he said of them was that, 'inflation is a calculated policy of the White House.' He offered not a single fact to support this absurd, ridiculous charge."

The governor added that when Eisenhower came to his own program to combat inflation, "all he could propose was, in his words: 'Knocking down the administration idol of cheap money, getting unified action from our economic agencies, and slicing the fat out of the federal budget.'"

Hurricane May Miss Miami, Fla.

Miami, Fla. (AP)—A severe hurricane whirled through the Florida Straits last night after injuring 70 persons and leaving hundreds homeless in a savage sweep across Cuba.

Miami and Southeast Florida's Gold Coast braced for the blow but Weather Bureau forecasters said the storm's present course would take it well east of Miami and in the general direction of Bimini.

Gales may be expected from the Upper Florida Keys to beyond Palm Beach but full hurricane force winds are not expected on the Florida coast.

The storm packed winds of 165 miles an hour crossing Cuba and lost some of its force in the island.

Pocono Twp. Warns Against Vandalism

Tannersville — Parents will be charged with responsibility for their children's Halloween vandalism, Clair Shick, Pocono Township policeman, said last night.

Township residents were reported up in arms over a recent wave of petty destruction, Shick said. Yesterday's roster of damages included 11 shattered windows, he reported.

Much of the damage, he added, is inflicted by teen-agers with cars who ride into the area from other parts of the county to do damage.

"Fun's fun, BUT—" said Shick, referring to the mounting number of complaints filed by residents.

Result: township police are mounting patrols, and State police are also on the watch. Youngsters caught with their stones up, or causing other damage, will be prosecuted. What's more, Shick said, so will the parents.

Living Costs Dip First In Six Months

Washington, (AP)—After a six-months steady climb to a record high, the cost of living dropped two-tenths of one per cent in September, the government reported yesterday.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics attributed the decline to a 1 per cent drop in the retail price of food.

The bureau's index, measuring the price of food, shelter, clothing and scores of other goods and services purchased by moderate income urban families, was 190.8 on Sept. 15. This compared with the record of 191.1 set on Aug. 15.

The bureau arrives at its index by assigning the figure 100 to the price level of 1935-39 and finding out how present prices compare with that.

Apart from food, the price of many things went up from Aug. 15 to Sept. 15. These included clothing, house furnishings, miscellaneous goods and services, fuel, electricity and rent. But these increases were not enough to offset the drop in food prices.

Busy Schedule Forces Ike To Skip Scranton

Washington, (AP)—The Republican National Committee said yesterday a planned visit of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to Scranton, Pa., next Monday had been cancelled because of the pressure of his schedule that day.

The stop was to have been at the Scranton airport at 9:55 a.m. The rally there was to have been designed for residents not only of Scranton but also of Wilkes-Barre.

However, a committee spokesman said the general's Pennsylvania schedule was so tight that it was decided to eliminate the visit. Eisenhower is also scheduled to appear in Philadelphia, Lancaster, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Altoona, and Pittsburgh Monday.

Girl Tells Of Being Kidnaped

Los Angeles (AP)—A 17-year-old high school girl, found half-clad in a Pershing Square restroom yesterday, told of being kidnaped and held for 20 hours by a man who left her body covered with scratches and burns.

The girl, Joan Leila Burris of Hollywood, was dressed only in underwear and was in a semi-conscious condition when a caretaker heard her moans. Physicians said she apparently had been drugged.

Miss Burris said she was kidnaped on her way to high school Thursday by a man in a light blue sedan.

C. D. Lines Up 14 Airplanes And 14 Pilots

Announcement was made at the office of Civil Defense at the Monroe County Courthouse yesterday that Harold Hamlen, of East Stroudsburg-Stroudsburg airport, aviation advisor for Monroe County C.D. had lined up 14 airplanes and the same number of pilots and co-pilots for use in emergency. They are all on a volunteer basis, a point which was highly commended by C.D. officials.

Hearing Held In Closing Of Station

Testimony for and against the abandonment of passenger agent services at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad station at Delaware Water Gap was heard yesterday before Daniel H. Jenkins, examiner for the Public Utility Commission in the main courtroom at Monroe County Court House.

Detlef A. Hansen, borough solicitor presented six witnesses who declared the railroad's petition to release the agent on duty would prove an inconvenience to industries and resort hotels in the area. Gomer Morgan, counsel for the railroad presented eight officials of railway, express and bus lines who testified the operation at the station, now on a five-month agent period, was not feasible financially for the railroad to continue.

The hearing marked the fourth instituted by both the railroad and Railway Express Agency since 1912 to discontinue facilities at the Water Gap station.

Hansen's principal contention was that a ruling of the PUC in 1942 called for operation of the station by an agent seven days a week from May 25 to Oct. 14 each year. He argued that over the past ten years the time element has dwindled and today the agent is on duty there only Monday through Friday, contending the largest amount of traffic occurs weekends and holidays when no agent is around.

Morgan produced a number of statements from railroad and freight divisions indicating for the six-month period of 1951 only 31 tickets were sold at the Gap station, with the revenue realizing $32.22. He said the baggage charges for the same period were only 56 cents and that incoming passengers represented a decrease over the past few years.

Construction of a toll bridge at the Gap figured in the borough's testimony when Hansen pointed out the State Highway Department will abandon plans for a road to the station if the PUC accepts the petition. He argued that while the railroad has agreed to operate a "flag-stop" during July and August the removal of accessible means to get to the station from the main street would render the station helpless and isolated.

Starting at 10 a. m. with railroad witnesses, Morgan quizzed J. E. Buch, division engineer for the State Highway Department who said the state could save $5,850 by eliminating paving of Delaware Ave. if the station was not to be used. He noted the area already has been graded and said "the State Highway Department is not for or against the station."

Bert L. Beier, division engineer for the DL and W said the station was built in 1903 at a cost of over $28,600 and said the 1950 value was $79,500. He estimated the annual cost of maintenance at $500 "conservatively" and $787, operating costs. He said this did not include the salaries of the passenger agent for five months and a janitor for the remaining time during the year.

The railroad's trainmaster, J. Pryce Thomas, of Bangor, reviewed the company's operation and said it would still be a "flag-stop" for two months if the petition to abandon was accepted by the PUC. He said the station was not a freight stop but indicated it does handle express and contented the same operations would be shifted to East Stroudsburg.

Vaughn H. Davis, division ticket agent revealed the figures submitted in evidence and Harry Hill, assistant superintendent at Hoboken, N. J. testified as to the number of passengers leaving that station for this region.

Duties of the local agent were outlined by L. L. Farrer who said he is on duty from May 25 to Oct. 14, five days each week and noted that three trains pass through on the flag-stop route.

A bus lines official, Robert M. Kizer, testified to the schedule two lines maintain through Water Gap and A. H. Becker, of Scranton, Railway Express supervisor, revealed the amount of shipments being handled by his concern at the Water Gap station. Hansen, in examining Becker termed the firm's business as "lucrative" and Becker replied the present operations of the bridge accounted for much of the business during the past year.

Recent location of Waring Enterprises in Delaware Water Gap was reviewed by J. L. Cohen, the firm's treasurer who said the music bridge, Md. . . . (Continued on page five)

South Koreans Battle Way Back Atop Sniper Ridge After Losing It To Reds

Seoul, (AP)—Sneaky fighting raged today atop battle-scarred Sniper Ridge in Central Korea.

South Koreans, knocked off Pinpoint Hill—the ridge's crest—about dawn, battled their way back through intense Chinese Red fire five hours later.

At 10 a. m., the South Koreans held half of Pinpoint Hill and fierce hand-to-hand fighting was in progress. AP Correspondent John Randolph reported from the Central Front. The South Koreans, crawling through heavy artillery fire, opened the counterattack at 8 a. m.

The South Koreans were engaged with elements of two Chinese battalions. A Red battalion totals between 500 and 750 men.

A force of between 800 and 900 Reds, surging out of a maze of underground fortifications, had pushed the South Koreans off the summit earlier today after a battle of several hours. The attackers were believed to be part of a fresh Chinese regiment.

Last night the Communists placed 17,000 rounds of artillery and mortar fire on Sniper Ridge.

"There's not much you can do except dig in under a bombardment like that," Randolph reported.

Red rifle, machine-gun, mortar and artillery fire broke up two attempts by the U. S. Seventh Division to fight atop Pike's Peak, the last Red stronghold on Triangle Hill just west of Sniper.

AP Correspondent Milo Farneti reported that officers of the Seventh Division estimated their troops killed or wounded 5,169 Reds on Triangle Hill between Oct. 13, when the battle began, and Oct. 23.

The Americans reached within 30 yards of the crest under heavy fire Friday night before they were forced back to previous U. S. positions on Triangle.

U.N. Marks Birthday

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—The United Nations observed its seventh birthday yesterday in a familiar atmosphere of hostilities, praise for its aims at world peace. The Russians boycotted a special General Assembly meeting honoring those who have died in support of U. N. principles.

Peace Without Honor Ruled Out By U. S.

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson served firm notice to cheering delegates yesterday that the U. N. "cannot buy peace at the price of honor."

He accused the Russians of organizing and continuing the Korean conflict and said the Allies must fight on in Korea until the Reds accept an armistice on U. N. Terms.

At the end of a two hour and 42 minute speech to the 60-nation, Assembly Political Committee, Acheson introduced his resolution asking the U. N. to endorse the unified command stand in the Panmunjom talks—especially its adamant position against forced repatriation of prisoners.

The resolution also called on the Assembly to urge the Communists to accept an armistice on the terms laid down by the U. N. and asked the president of the Assembly to inform the Reds of this decision.

In what British Delegate Selwyn Lloyd called a "magnificent" speech, Acheson declared the U. N. must find out whether the Communists really want an armistice.

He then read the resolution, in which 20 other nations joined as sponsors, and said:

"This session of the General Assembly has the great responsibility of peace in Korea. We must not and cannot buy peace at the price of honor."

Acheson called attention to the sacrifices of the U. N. nations fighting in Korea and soberly said: "Let no act of ours weaken or destroy the noble purpose of their sacrifice."

Cheers and noisy applause broke out as Acheson leaned back in his chair and the committee chairman, Joao Carlos Mouta de Brazil, adjourned the meeting until 3 p. m. Monday. There was an indication that the Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky may reply at length Monday but no definite word was forthcoming last night.

Acheson launched immediately into a full-length indictment of the Soviet Union on the charges of organizing and equipping the North Korean Army, carrying on the struggle through its satellite even after the aggression had been repelled, and now refusing to permit the North Koreans and Chinese Communists to accept truce terms.

Acheson was especially vigorous in declaring that aggression has been checked and hurled back beyond its point of origin. He added that the United Nations, although opposed by the Communists outside Korea, "has limited the conflict to Korea itself and the idea is to continue to limit the conflict to Korea."

Acheson reviewed the entire history of futile attempts to agree with Russia on unification of Korea and came finally to the question of repatriation of prisoners of war, the chief stumbling block to an armistice.

The Russians, Chinese Communists and North Koreans insist on forced repatriation of 121,000 prisoners held by the U. N. The U. N. Command says it will never agree to this demand and the Panmunjom talks have been suspended indefinitely.

Acheson read excerpts from 17 treaties signed by the Soviet Union with various countries since 1918 and each treaty contained the provision that a prisoner may return to his home country, stay in the country whose forces captured him or seek a home in a new country of his choice.

Ridgway Advocates Strong NATO Army

London (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said last night the 14 NATO nations can afford to finance forces strong enough "to give us a reasonable chance of defending ourselves" against a Communist attack.

"We have not yet got such forces," he added in a speech prepared for delivery at the El Alamein reunion here. "We are convinced that these we need can be provided within our economic capacity."

Rev. Elias Jones, Native Of Wales, Pastor Of Two Regional Baptist Churches

Few real Welsh ministers remain in this section today. But a native of Wales, Rev. Elias Jones, pastor of both Portland and Beakleyville Baptist Churches is one of those available Welshmen who continue to bring happiness to those with whom they associate.

Rev. Jones came to this country in 1912 at the age of 21 and lived in Susquehanna County. After attending Keystone Academy, where he was graduated in 1915, he enlisted in the U. S. Army, received six weeks basic training and went to Europe. He fought in France and Germany with the artillery, moving from division to division, and returned home after a year of action.

Back in the U. S. Rev. Jones attended Bible school in Binghamton, N. Y., graduating in 1923. During his tenure there he was supply minister for two years and then became a presbytery member of the Baptist State Convention, with his course covering New York State.

Two years later he was ordained and preached in New York State for several years. His first Pennsylvania charge was at New Albany, where he stayed for two years. From there he went to Olyphant as pastor of the Welsh Baptist Church for six years and came to this section in 1949.

The Beakleyville church is located just north of Eagle Valley corner, outside East Stroudsburg. He holds morning services in Portland and vespers at Beakleyville. His charge comprises about 200 members.

Rev. Jones always engaged in Welsh Day affairs in the East and spoke on numerous occasions, sometimes four and five times daily. He has two sisters and three brothers living in Wales today but has not returned there since World War One.

The minister and his wife, a native of East Branch, N. Y., along the Delaware River, were married June 28, 1922 while Rev. Jones was a Bible school student. They have no children.

Mrs. Jones takes an active part in church work and serves as substitute organist, pianist and choir director when the occasion warrants. The couple live on Delaware Ave., Portland, next to the church.

Male Chorus To Sing At Church

The Pocono Male Chorus will sing in the Tannersville Methodist Church Sunday night at 7:30, at which time the new electric lights, the new communion table and pulpit furniture will be dedicated.

Rev. Stimson To Preach On 'Corrosion'

At the morning service in the Stroudsburg Methodist Church, the pastor, Rev. Roger C. Stimson, will preach on the "Corrosion of Standards." He will discuss how the Protestant Reformation came about because of the lowered moral standards of the church of the middle ages. The widespread decay in morality in our present day suggests the need for moral reformation, the pastor said.

The Sanctuary Choir will sing "Teach Me, Day By Day." The Senior Choir will sing the "Cherubim Song." Albert J. Fregans, minister of music, will play the "Fantasia in C Minor" and "A Fugue."

The Union Reformation Service will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Stroudsburg Methodist Church. A mass choir of over 100 voices from churches all over Monroe County will sing two anthems under the direction of Mr. Fregans. The sermon from the experience of Martin Luther entitled "Here I Stand" will be preached by Rev. Claude Heilenman, pastor of the Canadensis Methodist Church.

Stroudsburg Methodists To Be Hosts

The Monroe County Ministerial Association announces the third annual County-wide Reformation Sunday Service scheduled for tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. at the Stroudsburg Methodist Church. This service, now traditional is always held on the Sunday nearest the day when Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the doors of the Castle Church in Wittenburg, Germany.

The main address will be delivered by Rev. Claude Heilenman, current president of the Monroe County Ministerial Association. Mr. Heilenman has chosen as his theme "Here I Stand." Other ministers of Monroe County will participate in the various parts of worship.

Special music will be provided by an adult choir numbering well over 100 voices. These singers come from churches throughout this area. The group will be led by Albert J. Fregans, minister of music of the host church. The choir will sing two anthems, "Gloria in Excelsis" and "Rock of Ages."

The offering given at this service will help sustain the ongoing work of the Ministerial Association. Ministers of the county who attend are asked to sit together up front towards the right.

Each year thus far this service has drawn over-flowing congregations. Those who plan to come are urged to arrive early. A concert of familiar hymns of the church will be presented by Mrs. Harold Stiff for those arriving before the 7:30 hour.

Rev. Zimmerman Accepts New Call

Rev. W. Russell Zimmerman, pastor of the Augustus Trappe Evangelical Lutheran Church, Trappe, Pa., since 1944, has tendered his resignation effective November 22 to accept a call to St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Wilmington, Del.

The Trappe Lutheran Church is the oldest unaltered Lutheran Church in America. During his pastorate the membership has more than tripled and numerous improvements effected. This young clergyman leaves his larger parish to build up the mission congregation to which he has been called. Pastor Zimmerman is the brother of

Rev. John Sinclair

Rev. Sinclair To Conduct Service Here

Rev. John Sinclair, a missionary now home on furlough from Venezuela will occupy the pulpit tomorrow morning at the First Presbyterian Church, Stroudsburg. The pastor of the church, Rev. Ernest T. Campbell, is in Colorado conducting a preaching mission.

Mr. Sinclair is a native of New Mexico. He is married and the father of a young son. He went to Venezuela in 1947 under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. There much of his time was given to the development of a Christian Youth Center where university and high school students, working young people, and professional youth were offered a program of cultural, educational, and religious activities.

The three vested choirs of the church will sing. The Westminster choir, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Farmer, will sing "Teach Me, O Lord." The Senior choir under the leadership of Vernon Imbt will sing "Immortal, Invisible."

Tomorrow night at 7:30 the congregation will join with sister churches of Monroe County in observing the festival of the Reformation at the Stroudsburg Methodist Church.

Reformation Service To Be Broadcast

The Festival Service of the Reformation will be broadcast over WV-PO from 11 to 12 a.m. Sunday from the sanctuary of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, East Stroudsburg. It will mark the 453rd anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther's posting of the now famed 95 theses on the doors of the Castle Church in Wittenburg, Germany, denouncing abuses rampant in the church of his day.

Rev. William F. Wunder will base his message on the concluding words of Luther's utterance at the Diet of Worms, "God Come To My Help." "Ein Feste Burg," the Reformation hymn, will be sung by the congregation during the service.

Altar flowers will be placed by Mr. and Mrs. Irving B. Kiffin in memory of their daughter, Lois Frances. The Reformation bulletins will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ace in honor of the birthdays of their grandchildren, Deborah and Billy; and by Pastor and Mrs. Wunder in honor of the fifth birthday of their daughter, Amy Carol.

Misses Sylvia Younk and Charlotte Toewe will be in charge of the nursery during the broadcast service. Misses Constance Werkheiser, Mary Ann Bosman, Anna and Grace Holdorf will serve as ushers. Mrs. Nellie Meichner will serve as soprano soloist and sing the solo parts during the singing of the anthem, "Out of the Depths" by the senior choir. Paul Hoffman, Thomas I. Kintner and Frank Schaller will serve as acolytes.

Church School will be conducted at 9:45 a.m. at which time the school will elect its officers for the new school term. Lutheran Hoffman has been named superintendent emeritus and the nominations are: Joseph H. Small, superintendent; Harford L. Cleveland and Stanley Wolbert, assistants; Stanley Danneker, treasurer; and Clifford R. Kintner, secretary. Lutheran Youth vespers will be conducted at 6:30 p.m. followed by a social hour. Grace Church will cooperate in the county Reformation rally service at 7:30 in the Stroudsburg Methodist Church.

Language is not only the vehicle of thought, it is a great and efficient instrument in thinking.

Sir Humphrey Davy.

ITS 65TH ANNIVERSARY will be celebrated Sunday by this church—St. Paul's Lutheran, Kresgeville—with a special service at 2 p. m. The church is one of four in the Pleasant Valley Lutheran Parish in the West End. Pastor is Rev. James R. Laubach. (Daily Record Photo)

Baptists Plan Special Day

Sunday will be observed as Harvest Home and Missionary Day in the First Baptist Sunday School.

The Harvest Home Ingathering will be sent to the Baptist Orphanage in Philadelphia. Members of the children's divisions of the school will bring foodstuffs, while the adult school will contribute money offerings.

In keeping with the regular schedule of the school the regular offerings of the fourth Sunday will be applied to the missionary work of the school.

Every member participation is encouraged.

Evangelist To Close Services

Rev. David Wellard will conclude the evangelistic services at the First Pentecostal Church, South Stroudsburg, Sunday night.

Special music will be featured. A special illustrated service was held last night. Prayers were said for the sick.

Special Festival Service To Take Place At St. John's

Four hundred thirty-five years ago an event occurred in the history of the Christian Church which has had a strong bearing upon the democratic form of governments in the world. It was on Oct. 31, 1517, that Dr. Martin Luther challenged actions that brought about what is usually regarded as the Reformation. This event brought about the birth of the Lutheran Church with its more than 75 million members throughout the world. This act will be duly celebrated not only by Lutherans but virtually all Protestant churches tomorrow.

Rev. Dr. P. N. Wohlson announces a special festival service at St. John's Lutheran Church at which time he will present the message on the subject, "The Source of Freedom." The service will be marked by a special program of music, and many of the old rallying hymns will be sung by choir and congregation. Miss Louise Diekmann, of Brooklyn, will play "We All Believe in One God" as a prelude.

The senior choir of St. John's will sing "The Heavens are Telling" and "Now Thank We All Our God" under the direction of Robert H. Cathart, organist and choirmaster. Mrs. Frederick Diekmann, who has been heard on several occasions in St. John's in recent months, will serve as guest soloist and will sing "Gloria." Ronald Erdman will serve as acolyte for this service and George T. Robinson, C. S. Kitchen, J. A. Kitchen and James Hantilis will serve as ushers. The flowers will be placed by Mrs. Ellen Spring and family in memory of the husband and father, George Spring Sr.

The session of the church school and Bible classes will be held at 9:45 a. m. in charge of Edwin F. Buck as superintendent, with Russell W. Kern and Mrs. Floyd Fetherman as assistants.

The vespers have been dispensed with so that the congregation may unite with other Protestant congregations in a Reformation rally service at the Stroudsburg Methodist Church at 7:30 p. m.

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; Yes, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.—Revelation 14:13.

A Lesson in Building

This youngster is learning the rudiments of one of the oldest and most useful of the human arts—the art of building. It was a great day in the life of primitive man when he learned to put sticks and stones together and build things.

From the crude structures of humanity's infancy, the art of building has progressed to its present amazing proportions. Today we have beautiful residences, imposing churches, sprawling factories, tall skyscrapers and far-flung bridges.

Life itself is a building process which begins in infancy and runs throughout our days. All the knowledge we acquire, all our experiences, habits, thoughts, ideals, and emotions are laid block on block to form the pattern of our character.

And the strength of the life we build is measured in terms of faith—faith in God and in good. With this faith man can bind together the elements of his life in an enduring structure. The Church and the Bible are the best guides in the building of a life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Nightshirt Returns

The old Romans, most civilized of men, wore the loose-fitting toga. The Arabs and the wise men of India even today wear robes.

Here the descendants of the pioneers constrict their bodies with tight-fitting trousers, vests, collars, neckties, and shoes that pinch. Even in bed they have no peace, for civilization has forced upon them pajamas, an effeminate invention neither comfortable nor attractive.

But there is hope. A national survey of haberdashers discloses that the old-fashioned flannel nightshirt is becoming popular again.

This may portend a turning point in American civilization. The era of the nightshirt was our golden age. Men who wore it conquered the West, built our great industrial empires and took no backtalk from either women or Parisian fashion stylists.

Besides, a good nightshirt would last a man for years.

Grounds for--

An Ohio judge hands down the opinion that many divorces result from the unsettled habits of American families.

Moving from town to country and back again, from one city to another and from apartment to house to trailer and vice versa causes trouble and often leads to the divorce court, this jurist decrees.

Anyone who has ever undergone the rigors of more than one moving day—packing, wrestling boxes, looking for a shirt at the bottom of the box—will agree that this form of exercise is cruel and inhuman treatment. Especially for men.

We don't say that all families must necessarily stay put. But we do heartily recommend to wives that they permit their husbands to go fishing or to the ball game or down to the corner when moving day comes.

Sunday School Lesson

Scripture—Matthew 7.

By Newman Campbell

Life is more complicated today, but the need for the kind of life which Jesus advocated in His Sermon on the Mount, is as essential now as then—even more so.

Life in these United States is easier in many ways than it was in our Lord's time, but there is fear in our hearts and minds as there was then, and much wickedness is troubling the earth.

Our world is much larger than the ancient one. We know more about the great globe and its inhabitants. We have many marvelous inventions, but alas, we plan to use so many of them for the destruction of others instead of for their benefit.

Even so, we do use some of our newly-acquired knowledge to try to understand why others act as they do, and not to judge them too harshly, but to help them. But we must need to simply follow the Lord's teachings. If we could only convert the whole wide world to that, all our troubles would end.

"Judge not, that ye be not judged," said Jesus. Our law says a man shall be considered innocent until he is proved guilty, so why should we judge others when we ourselves have so many faults? "With what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged," Jesus told His hearers.

Let us examine our own hearts and ask ourselves whether we are obeying that precept.

The verses about beholding the mote (a minute splinter) in your brother's eye, when you have a beam (a joint or raft) in your own, means that we should again focus our attention on our own shortcomings, which may possibly be larger than those of the brother we are criticizing.

"Casting pearls before swine" is a saying often heard in connection with presenting precious worldly things to unappreciative persons. Christ uses it in connection with things that are holy.

About prayer, Jesus said: "Ask and it shall be given you." Ask and what man would give his son a stone instead of bread, or a serpent in place of fish?

"If ye, then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven, give good things to them that ask them?"

Not all the things we pray for may be granted us, just as some of our children's requests must, in wisdom, be denied them, but if we seek, deeply and earnestly, we will derive benefit even if we do not get exactly what we ask for.

"Therefore, all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

That sums up what should be the real relationship we have with others. Repeat the words, all who read, and think of them; then put them in practice in your daily living, and you may be sure that Christ will approve of your way of life and reward you.

Jesus warned against false prophets "which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves."

How shall we know them for what they are? "By their fruits shall ye know them." A good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree cannot.

Then Christ warned of those who deceive themselves that they will be acceptable in the Lord's sight, while their private conduct may be unethical. They may be hypocrites.

"Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father which is in heaven."

"Many will say unto Me in that day (the day of judgment), Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Thy name? and in Thy name have cast out devils? and in Thy name done many wonderful works?"

"And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you; depart from Me, ye that work iniquity."

The man or woman who hears (or reads) these things and then neglects to do them, Jesus likened to the man who built his house on sand, and when the storms came the house was destroyed. But the person who hears His words and lives them is like a man who built his house on a rock. When the rain descended and the floods came, it remained firm, for it was built upon rock.

So Jesus ended His Sermon, and the multitudes who had been listening to Him were astonished, because He taught them as "One having authority."

Are we to be wise, following His teaching? or foolish like the man who built his house on sand? The world hath sore need of those who obey His teachings all the days of their lives.

Memory Verse — "Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do also unto them." Matthew 7:12.

The giant crab of Japan is largest known spider crab. It has legs from four to six feet in length.

Richard Wood built America's first foundry designed exclusively for cast iron pipe manufacture, in 1825.

Besides, women like to move things. So, let the old man take off and when he returns, everything will be ship-shape—even if he can't find his pipe and slippers.

Polio Battle Progresses

Although the progressive development of the constant battle against polio warrants optimism, warning must be given that the final victory is not at hand, even though a Johns Hopkins scientist has developed and tested a vaccine which gives promise of being effective against all three types of the disease.

This heartening story, in a copyright article carried in the Baltimore Sun, tells of the work carried on by Dr. Howard A. Howe who says he is satisfied that it is possible to produce a satisfactory level of polio antibodies in human beings.

Antibodies, the specific agents which can be developed in the blood to produce immunity, have been successful to a marked degree in Dr. Howe's continuing studies, although the preparation of a triple vaccine made the work especially difficult. Any one of the three types can cripple, and thus a preventive must be aimed at all of them.

Yet the very fact that Dr. Howe has reached a level of success in his experiments to warrant describing the results before the annual meeting of the American Public Health Association in Cleveland, gives hope for the future combat against polio, and is definitely a major step forward in the struggle to free the nation from its crippling effects.

Dr. Howe, in making known the success of the experiments, stressed the fact that the human trials are the culmination of 10 years of painstaking research by a team of researchers supported by the March of Dimes.

With Pennsylvania having just undergone the most depressing summer in polio incidence, it is certainly good news that must give all of us hope for a future in which the land will be free of the awful scourge of polio.

MAN SWINGING A HAMMER AND SICKLE

J. Wechsler, the New York Post editor, has confessed he is a Young Communist League official. . . . He has argued the Young Communist League was an insignificant segment of the Red apparatus and that he performed minor errands for the Communists. . . .

We have debunked that one before—here's another crusader. The truth is that the Communist Party considered the Young Communist League a vital branch of the Red network. . . . The Communist Party's official publication, "The Communist," believed the Young Communist League was important enough to issue the following directives in May, 1937: "The Communist Party and the Young Communist League factions set up within classes and departments must supplement and combat by means of discussions, brochures, etc., bourgeois omissions and distortions in the regular curriculum. Marxist-Leninist analysis must be injected into every class."

"Communist teachers must take advantage of their positions without exposing themselves to give their students to the best of their ability working class education. To enable the teachers in the party to do the latter, the party must take careful steps to see that all teacher-comrades are given thorough education in the teaching of Marxism-Leninism. Only when teachers have really mastered Marxism-Leninism will they be able skillfully to inject it into their teaching at the least risk of exposure and at the same time conduct struggles around the schools in true Bolshevik manner."

P. S.: Strangely enough, some years ago New York Post columnist Max Lerner publicly opposed the dismissal of Communist teachers.

Max Lerner (The N. Y. Post columnist) expressed horror at W.W.'s exposure of the New York Post's "former Communists." He declared it was unfair, etc. . . . On Sept. 11, 1944, however, the same Max Lerner attacked a Life magazine editorial. He noted the editorial "was actually written by Wm. Schiann, an ex-Communist."

End of freerack.

Max Lerner wrote on July 1st, 1943: "If you look at the record of Russia's deeds, you find that, under Stalin, Russia has abandoned the tactic of world revolution and used the Communist mainly for its own safety. And if you look at the record, you know that Russia's so-called Communist plotting has not in any sense been a military threat to us."

Lerner (who also serves as a college professor) apparently is ignorant of the elementary facts of international life. Before teaching others the professa should learn some simple facts.

The Sabbath Times reports some authorities estimate that the atomic spies advanced Russia's atomic program by as much as ten years. Obviously, this was history's greatest betrayal.

But after the FBI cracked the atomic spy ring, the New York Post assailed the FBI for using wire-tap methods and accused the G-men of violating the law.

A panel of the Subversive Activities Control Board this week ruled that the U. S. Communist Solving the Problem for Machines, But Not for Ourselves.

Looking At Life

—by Erich Brandeis

An amazing and rather disquieting letter came in the mail. It was from a 30 year old woman in the Middle West, a wife with three young children and a husband who works in a factory and makes pretty good money.

This woman tells me that she leads a pretty good life—she lives good nowadays. She has many of the comforts of a nice home, a washing machine, a radio, a television set.

"But how long will it last?" she asks.

"It just seems that the human race is bent on its own destruction."

"There isn't a day that we don't read about some new invention."

Party is "directed, dominated and controlled" by Soviet Russia and should be forced to register with the Justice Dept. . . . The decision followed 18 months of hearings in which the panel listened to ex-Communists and other witnesses. . . . It was the first ruling under the 1950 Internal Security Act—one of the most vital legal weapons the U. S. has in fighting Communism.

Many ex-Communists aided the Gov't in this case. But did any of the New York Post's "former Commissars" help? (Yet!)

Max Lerner states W.W. is attacking the Post "because it is on the side of the Eisenhower-Taft-Nixon-McCarthy combination" . . . The truth: This reporter has been blasting Taft for the past 16 years. . . . We recently devoted a full column to depicting the Nixon fund. . . . As the record will certify, we have opposed McCarthy when we believed he was wrong. . . . Ditto for Gen. Ike—as our readers, televisioners and radio listeners will attest.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston (a Democrat) endeavored to intimidate the U. S. press. . . . This Democratic Senator threatened to deprive American dailies of their postal privileges—because a majority of papers support the GOP nominee. . . . This blunt threat against the free press has been met with silence by Democratic editorialists— the same opinion-moulders who accuse Sen. McCarthy of endangering civil liberties.

These Days - - By George E. Sokolsky

ANATOMY OF PATRIOTISM

Gov. Adlai Stevenson, speaking before veterans who had risked their lives for their country, said:

"Now it seems to me that true patriotism is based on tolerance and a large measure of humility."

That, of course, is a private definition of an emotion and is unrelated to the subject. Patriotism is love of country. And love of country forbids tolerance of traitors, recognition of the right of anyone to betray our country, to sell her secrets to a foreign foe. No one can simultaneously be a patriot and a defender of Alger Hiss, of the Rosenbergs, of the Harold Wise Communist cell, of the New York Eleven and the Hollywood Ten. It is impossible to be a patriot and a Communist or a friend of the Communist at the same time.

The word, "humanity," is very broad and includes all these categories. It includes the saintly and the evil and the rest of us who are in between.

Further, Stevenson said to these same veterans:

"Now what can we say, too, for the man who proclaims himself a patriot and then for political or personal reasons attacks the patriotism of faithful public servants? I give you, if I may, as a shocking example the attacks which have been made on the loyalty and the motives of our great war-time Chief of Staff, General Marshall. To me, this is the type of 'patriotism' which is, in Dr. Johnson's phrase, the last refuge of scoundrels."

Does this mean that if a public servant has made grievous errors, costing to date 121,000 American casualties, we are to say nothing about it because he is a "faithful public servant"? No one has questioned General Marshall's fidelity in the sense that one questions Alger Hiss's fidelity, but General George Marshall is responsible for a series of blunders which gave Soviet Russia the opportunity to conquer China and which brought on the Korean War. He could have accomplished the same result with the very best of intentions, as he could have saved us the humiliations we have suffered in Asia. Millions of human beings have been killed in wars and driven destitute by the best of intentions of politicians, statesmen, and even philosophers. It is not a question of the intention of public men, but their judgment, their wisdom, their capacity to stand firm in the face of pressures.

To quote Dr. Samuel Johnson is easy; the quotation appears in many reference books and was originally written for his dictionary which is never used anymore. He was a garrulous gentleman whose writings were never as worthy as his conversation which was full of quips and wisecracks. We know more about him from his admirer, James Boswell, who recorded his witticisms, than from his own works which were unusually dull. Johnson is a fitting hero to Stevenson who fills his serious speeches with the light touch that diverts from the main issue.

Patriotism cannot be described as "the last refuge of scoundrels," for it is a noble attribute, an expression of love and gratitude. Patriotism is the cement which binds a people into a unity that sustains a country. To be a patriot of this country is to pay homage to that sanctuary of human liberty in which some 50 races of man have taken refuge and where they found the richest of all gifts, human liberty.

Patriotism requires eternal vigilance to keep our country strong and pure and sure. It is patriotism that impels men to put themselves on the firing line of public opinion to drive Communists out of our government, to force Congressional committees to make investigations into the infiltration of our government by Stalin's agents. It is patriotism that drives men and women to testify under oath concerning this evil world conspiracy which often brings upon them the wrath even of those whom they are defending. To be silent in the face of danger can be unpatriotic.

To denounce such men even by innuendo, or by insinuation, is to fail to realize the damage that has been done to our country since 1934 by those who set out to conquer this country by the corruption of the spirit of our people. That they have not succeeded is due not to easy-going, jesting politicians, but to those patriots who never failed to put America first in their hearts and interests.

Father Edward Murphy wise and witty New Orleans priest, tells of an old colored man who drove his dilapidated jalopy through a red light on Canal Street. Arrested and taken before a judge, the old man explained, "Yo' honor, Ah saw all the white folks goin' through the green light, so Ah jus' went through the red."

"The Case was dismissed," adds Father Murphy.

The American Legion Magazine reports that an army inductee from an Ivy League college asked a grizzled sergeant, "Is there any accepted form of salute that will enable me to show the proper respect for a certain officer's rank, but at the same time make crystal clear my opinion of him personally?"

And Gregory Ratoff spotted this sign in an Israeli army barracks: "Privates will kindly refrain from giving advice to officers."

District Rotarians Nominate Frank Dolbear As Governor

Clubs Select Tunkhannock Principal

POCONO MANOR—Delegates to the conference of District 262, Rotary International yesterday afternoon nominated Frank Dolbear, supervising principal of Tunkhannock Joint Schools to be district governor succeeding Peter A. Garrity, of Pittston.

Mr. Dolbear is past president of Tunkhannock Rotary Club. He has long been active in the civic affairs of Tunkhannock. He served once as delegate to a Rotary International Convention and ten times as a delegate to a district conference. He has been a Sunday school superintendent 18 years.

Dolbear will be formally elected district governor at the Rotary International Convention in Paris in May, 1953.

Other conference business was moved over until this morning due to a late running program yesterday afternoon.

First major social event was a Pennsylvania Dutch dinner and dance last night at the Inn. Delegates and their ladies were in traditional costume for the event. Prizes were awarded for best costumes.

The conference opened with a luncheon yesterday. Rev. Frank H. Blatt, past president of Stroudsburg Club gave the invocation. Rotary's opportunities for service to youth were outlined by Robert A. MacAskill, of the Athens Club.

First plenary session was opened at 2 p.m. with Rev. Harold MacMurray, Pocono Mountain Club, presenting an invocation. John M. Crandall, manager of Pocono Manor extended a welcome to delegates and Gerald P. O'Neill, Stroudsburg club responded for delegates.

District Governor Peter A. Garrity was introduced and filed a district report.

Dr. T. Eavne Graham, representative of H. J. Brunner, president of Rotary International, brought a message from Brunner, much of which dealt with plans for the Paris meeting of Rotary in May, 1953.

Rotary extension work was discussed by Nicholas N. Rahn, past district governor. August Mitke, Nanticoke Club, gave an address on "acquaintance."

There was a conference tea at 4:30 p.m.

Frank Dolbear, the incoming district governor, will address delegates this morning prior to the second plenary session.

All phases of Rotary activities will be discussed at the plenary meeting. Luncheon will be smorgasbord at noon and the conference banquet and governor's ball will take place tonight starting at 7 p.m.

Arrangements Completed For Walter Dinner

Plans were completed last night for the testimonial dinner for Rep. Francis E. Walter, scheduled to begin at the Penn-Stroud Hotel, in Stroudsburg, at 7:30 p.m. today.

The banquet will honor Walter for 20 years' service as a Democratic congressman. He is now in his 11th term.

The Congressman, who ranks high in seniority in the House, will make what was described as the "only formal speech" he plans before elections are held.

According to reports, the speech will deal mostly with U.S. foreign policy, is expected to relate in part to Korea.

The dinner is basically a non-partisan affair, according to Democratic County Chairman John Brislin. Those attending include many Republicans, Brislin said.

There are a limited number of tickets available at Democratic headquarters at the Penn-Stroud, on Seventh St., Brislin said. The affair is limited to 300.

POS of A To Honor Congressman

Monroe County POS of A camps will be represented at the testimonial dinner at which Congressman Francis E. Walter, of Easton, will be honored for his work on immigration problems. The dinner, sponsored by the camps in Northampton and Carbon Counties in addition to Monroe, will be held at Hotel Bethlehem Wednesday night, Oct. 29.

Congressman Walter, co-author of the McCarran-Walter Immigration act will receive a certificate of merit from the National Camp of the organization at the dinner. He will be cited for his work both as chairman of the House subcommittee on immigration and as a member of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Indications point to 300 attending the dinner at Bethlehem. Claude E. Metzgar, past state president of the order, has charge of the tickets for the Monroe County camps. Indications, it was said last night, were for a large attendance from this county. Walter Kutzler, Easton, also a past state president, is in charge of arrangements.

He said elimination of the station "would be a distinct discredit to the traveling public." He also said the population of the borough from 1940 to 1950 increased 85 percent, from 430 to 734.

John Stubbelfield, William J. Tope and Richard Hauser, all supervisors of hotel businesses in the Gap section related their patrons "were inconvenienced" by present flag-stops at the station.

Daniel Avery Charged With Trying To Shoot At Relatives During Argument Over Cabin

An East Stroudsburg man was charged last night with trying to shoot at relatives during an argument over a small cabin near Bushkill Oct. 4.

He was Daniel L. Avery, Borough St., who, with his wife, was released on his own recognizance pending Pike County court hearing at Milford on a charge of assault and battery.

Blaze Damages Stroudsburg's Street Sweeper

The borough of Stroudsburg's street sweeper was turned into an inferno at 3 p.m. yesterday when leaves burned in the compartment, gutting the metal section and damaging the cab.

Firemen were summoned to the blaze at the sewage treatment plant south of Lower Main St. and used a hose to extinguish the fire.

Harvey DeHaven, driver, was driven from the cab by the dense smoke and called firemen. Heavy brushes which sweep debris into the compartment were destroyed, the paint was blistered, driver's seat destroyed and steering wheel burned partially. Damage was estimated at several hundred dollars. The fire was believed to have started when a lighted cigar was swept into the compartment with dried leaves.

borough attorneys to Harrisburg for arguments before the commission, Examiner Jenkins said. It is not expected that the decision will be known for several months, however.

Son Of Local Couple Killed In Korean War

Sterling—Word was received here that Donald Fueglein, 19, former local resident, was killed in action with the Army in Korea.

Before enlisting in the Army in the Summer of 1951, Fueglein had resided with his grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Fueglein, Sterling. He also is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fueglein, of Stroudsburg, and two sisters, Mrs. Lois Kipi, of Sterling, and Tessie, who resides with Mrs. Hattie Fueglein in Sterling and attends Greene-Dreher-Sterling Joint School at Newfoundland.

Fueglein last was home in December, 1951, and was sent to Korea shortly after that. His Korean tour of duty was nearing its end when he was killed.

To Aid In Barrett Blood Donor Day

Barrett—The American Legion Auxiliary of Evans-Blitz Post will assist the post in the blood donor drive to be held Tuesday, Nov. 4, at Barrett Township School from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m. Plans were discussed for the program to be set up at the meeting of the auxiliary at the Legion Home this week. Mrs. Liza Price was named chairman.

The auxiliary will again pack Christmas boxes for the boys in the service, who are overseas. Mrs. Mary Wickes is chairman. Anyone wishing to give a donation should contact Mrs. Wickes or Mrs. C. Christenson. The following articles will be used in the boxes: small cans of meat and fruit, cheese, wash cloths, writing paper, razor blades, tooth paste, pencils and candles. These boxes must be ready for mailing by November 15. The night of packing will be announced at a later date.

Committees announced for 1952-53 were: Americanism, Mrs. Lillian Shoemaker; Child Welfare, Mrs. Mary Garrison; Rehabilitation, Mrs. Mary Wickes; community service, Mrs. Amelia Handy; coupons, Mrs. Edna Rosenzweig; legislative, Mrs. Lillian Lewis; membership, Mrs. Bertha Muir; music, Mrs. Mary Garrison; poppies, Mrs. Betty Faltner; press and publication, Mrs. Melinda Havlick; united activities, Arlene Oker; Pan-American, Mrs. Liza Price.

The next auxiliary meeting will be held Monday, November 3, 8 p. m. at the Legion home.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

I think we all better agree to go up one side and down the other side of Mosier's Knob this Sunday if we don't want to get in a traffic jam on our way to the dedication of the Girl Scout camp.

At least I hope there will be enough of us to make a traffic jam. The Girl Scouts and their leaders, and their leaders' husbands, and all their friends have given mighty of time, equipment and effort to make the camp building possible, so we'd just better appreciate it.

So let's go up by way of the Shawnee Presbyterian Church - and I do mean up - and down Dutch Hill, huh? The Girl Scouts planned the program themselves so it's short and to the point with plenty of time left for those older and daughtier.

But speaking of going up one side and down the other, I wish you might have heard the 8 et 40 and I trying to get together with that list of officers over the telephone. 'C'est pour rien, to say the least.

Fortunately, the Committees elect officers at different times, or we'd be really mixing up the pious house with la petite chapeau far sure.

However, with two children taking Latin, I'm all set for the next organization that calls up and wants to give me the officers in that language. That will be just pluperfect subjunctive.

Dedication Of Camp To Mark Opening Of Girl Scout Week At Camp Lloyd Treible Sunday

The dedication of Camp Lloyd Treible on the top of Mosier's Knob at 3 p. m. Sunday will mark the opening of National Girl Scout Week in Monroe County. The public is invited to attend the dedication, planned by the Girl Scouts themselves.

The presentation of the colors, an invocation by Reva Heller, the Brownie and Girl Scout promises, and the Girl Scout Laws will be presented by representative Scouts. Marie Cohen will lead the "Presentation of Honors."

Mrs. Harold C. Edwards, county president of the Girl Scout Council, will give the dedicatory address, which will be followed by the lighting of the altar fire and a song "Rise Up, O Flame" by the Girl Scout chorus.

After taps, the Scouts and their visitors will be served with cider and doughnuts.

The program will be brief to allow an inspection of the new camp building, used this summer for the first time.

The dedication will be held rain or shine. If the weather is fine it will be held outdoors around the altar fire, and if rainy in the large camp building around the open fireplace.

Portland Visitor Sails For Germany

Portland—A farewell party was given for Mrs. Louise Pritschow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kramer Sr. on Saturday night. Mrs. Pritschow leaves for Berlin, Germany, on Friday on the S. S. America, at 4 p. m. from New York. She has spent six months with her daughter, Miss Erna Pritschow, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kramer.

She has enjoyed this country very much, she reported. She was presented with a purse from the Circle of the Presbyterian Church, and other gifts. Refreshments were served to those attending: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Zehner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nicholas, Miss Gladys Waret, all of Belvidere, N. J., Miss Olga Koretzky, Miss J. Koretzky of Foul Rift, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kramer, Miss Erna Pritschow and other guests and the guest of honor, Mrs. Louise Pritschow of Berlin, Germany.

As far as I pursued the subject, I was right—don't you agree? But I hadn't been off the air an hour until a call came from a lady listener. "I thought I just had to let you know," she remarked kindly. "That I disagreed with you today. Since you are always so fair-minded in all you say, I thought you'd be glad to know that I, for one, find General Eisenhower VERY romantic. I think he is one of the most exciting, romantic men of the 20th century."

In the interests of being fair, I wish to pass the word along that at least one listener finds General Eisenhower quite as dashing in a business suit as in a soldier's uniform. But I'm somewhat perturbed that no one called in to speak an equally flattering word for Adlai. Just to keep the record straight, I hope someone who feels Adlai about this oversight will contact me at once.

HERE AND THERE: When you're in shopping today, look for N-Zit, the packages that contain your own personal rainbow, to brighten the family hearth in the cold days just ahead. Individual packets are placed between the logs, and give a radiant glow to the fire—transforming the living room into a magic realm of color—a bright backdrop for dreaming... Gift-conscious shoppers will also be interested in the new bathroom ensembles being sold at $5.98 in our gift department. These include a Klenex container, a waste paper basket, and a lavatory brush enclosed in metal. Colors are blue-gray, dusty rose, black or white... And what little girl wouldn't write a pretty sonnet about a handsome knitted bonnet with pom pom trim, priced at $1.98? ... It's Saturday—so we'll see you at Wyckoff's, won't we?

Polio Funds Dwindle As Cases Mount

There may be 60,000 polio cases this year—the blackest in polio history.

That was the report brought back to Stroudsburg yesterday by Mrs. Olaf Pedersen, state adviser for Eastern Pennsylvania, National Polio Foundation.

The gloomy picture emerged in a conference of March of Dimes directors, chairmen and workers in Washington. They heard that during September 4,000 cases a week shoved the toll staggeringly high.

The decline in October has been disappointingly slow, Mrs. Pedersen learned. Result: A terrific pile-up of new patients, and an alarming drop in the national foundation's epidemic aid funds.

"There are indications now that 1952 will have from 55,000 to 60,000 polio cases," Mrs. Pedersen said. "This is by far the worst year in all history."

For comparative purposes, Mrs. Pedersen cited the figure of 45,233 cases reported as of Oct. 11 this year. For the same period last year there were 22,791, only half as many.

Even for the single week, ending Oct. 11, the shocking total was 2,864 cases.

The national foundation was throwing all its resources into the battle, Mrs. Pedersen learned. She said:

Hundreds of chapters that have exhausted their local funds are receiving aid from the national foundation.

To date, in 1952, such aid to local chapters totals $5,980,243.

Emergencies have been met with 1,776 iron lungs and 465 hot pack machines.

Although many more are needed, 1,224 nurses have been sent into critical areas.

The eye-popping increase in total cases this year, plus the drastic inroads on foundation funds added up to one thing, the workers at the Washington conference agreed: a need for the biggest polio campaign in American history.

"The March of Dimes has got to march this year as it has never marched before," Mrs. Pedersen said. "This is an emergency."

National is meeting the emergency with all the funds it has, but the drain on chapter funds is terrific," she said.

Care must be continued, she said, for the thousands upon thousands of victims who have already been crippled or disabled by the disease, as well as those who have contracted it only recently.

Delegates agreed the thing to do was to organize early this year. "We plan to recruit the greatest force of workers ever enrolled in the March of Dimes," said Mrs. Pedersen.

Only by doing that, she said, could the fund drive from Jan. 2 to the end of the month raise enough to assure the life-saving treatment needed by tens of thousands of victims.

The picture wasn't all black, however.

The first really bright hope of a step toward a preventative appeared on the polio horizon following a report by medical research men this week.

Announcements of "an important nature" in the field of research may be "expected soon," conference members were told.

"According to indications, the turning point is approaching in the fight,"

Large Number Of Property Transfers Recorded Here

A large number of deeds were filed at the office of Floyd Butz, register and recorder at the Court House yesterday for transfers of properties in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. John Penn, of Scranton, filed a deed for transfer of a plot in the Pocono Gardens area, Conchaugh Township, to George Choberka, Herbert Griffiths and Joseph Jones, trustees, of Peckville.

In another transaction, Arlington J. Smale, of Polk Twp., filed a deed for transfer of a tract in Datter's Creek section to Mr. and Mrs. William G. George of Lower Townships Twp., Carbon County.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Butz, Jackson Township, transferred .317 acre of land in same area to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee, of the same township. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Weingartner, Hamilton Township, disposed of a property on the Easton-Wilkes-Barre highway to Sciota to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Capito, of Bethlehem.

Miss Mary M. Loomis, of Mount Pocono, by her deed transferred a property on the Grange Rd. in Paradise Twp. to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wonnemberg, Philadelphia.

The Lehigh Valley Cooperative Farmers with offices in Allentown became owners of a property in the N. Courtland St.-Maple Ave. in East Stroudsburg area through the transfer of the deed by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Johnson, also East Stroudsburg.

In other deeds filed Walter T. Martin, of Pocono Twp., transferred lot 32 in the M. B. Snover's addition, Willow St., East Stroudsburg, to Richard Gearhart, East Stroudsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Smith, Hamilton Twp., transferred 54 acre of land adjoining Hamilton Twp. school district to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leon, Hamilton Twp. A tract of one and one-fifth acres of land on the Long Pond-Pocono Lake road was transferred by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Marke, of Allentown, to Mr. and Mrs. John G. Taylor, of Philadelphia.

Even the brighter aspects of the story pointed up the need for expanded campaign drives in January, said Mrs. Pedersen. The funds are needed not only for medical care and treatment, diagnosis and relief of symptoms but to provide the impetus which can bulldoze through the remaining obstacles in the search for a preventative—now closer at hand than ever before.

One feature, it seemed clear, will be a greatly expanded "Mothers March on Polio" in January. More than two million mothers may participate in 1953. Reason: mothers last year did a top-drawer job in a single night of fund-collecting.

125 Requests For Military Ballots Honored To Date By Commissioners' Office

A record number of applications for military ballots had been received and processed at the office of the Monroe County commissioners at the Court House at the close of business at 4:30 yesterday afternoon. A total of 125 of the ballots had been placed in the mail at that time for the Nov. 4 presidential election.

Mrs. Grace C. Schiller, registration clerk at the office, stated that the ballots had been mailed out as rapidly as the applications were received. Balloting must take place by Nov. 4.

The deadline for getting the ballots back to the commissioners' office is 10 a. m. Friday, Nov. 14, the date fixed for counting military ballots. The official date for counting ballots cast at Pennsylvania polling places at the Nov. 4 election is Friday, Nov. 7.

Enclosed with the special ballots when mailed out is a card with general instructions and also two envelopes, one of which is provided for the ballot which is to be sealed and, no matter when it arrives at the commissioners' office, will not be opened until the official count on Nov. 14.

A Harrisburg dispatch said Pennsylvania service men displayed only lukewarm interest when the 1951 legislature passed an act providing them voting privileges. There were only 2,310 ballots cast at the July, 1951, primary and in the neighborhood of 4,000 for the April, 1952, primary.

There is an entirely different story in connection with the coming election, there having been practically 32,000 requests for ballots processed at the office of the State Election Bureau alone, which does not include those handled in the 67 counties of the State.

The turnout of military ballots, however, is not expected to approach the record 255,000 soldier votes cast in the 1944 presidential election.

Gene D. Smith, commonwealth secretary, said the military vote is likely to follow pattern of the civilian vote as it did 10 years ago during World War II.

Service men or members of their family may write or apply in person from the State Elections Bureau or his home county election board for an official ballot. He need not be registered to vote.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Frank "Red" Patterson, publicity director for the New York Yankees, informed this writer by telephone yesterday that Harry Schaeffer was awarded a one-quarter cut in the recent World Series melon, despite the fact that the lanky southpaw's name hasn't appeared on any of the official lists released thus far by the Yankees. A clerical error, so Patterson stated, resulted in Harry's name being scratched off the list when actually it should have been placed in a bracket with Andy Carey, Pete Previl, Johnny Schmitz and Art Schaback. Schaeffer's cut is worth $1,566.58.

Harry was with the Yankees on two occasions during the campaign just completed and the World Champs continue to maintain their reputation for being generous by voting the likeable lefty a one-quarter share in the World Series swag. Schaeffer is a graduate of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College and received his start in professional ball with the Stroudsburg Poconos in 1946 and 1947. Harry attended "Home Coming Day" at ESSTC last weekend, where he renewed many old friendships.

Don Henzey, a member of the Stroudsburg sub-station of state police, teamed with Leo Heller at Pocono Manor the other day to score a one-up golf victory over George Engle and Ernest Staples, captain and first mate respectively on the German freighter "Belovar" now tied up in Philadelphia. Both Engle and Staples are staying at Pocono Manor Inn, but are scheduled to depart for Philadelphia some time today. Heller shot a 71 in the match and Henzey came up with a score of 79, so this column was informed.

Blairtown High School's soccer team attended last Wednesday's soccer match at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, as the guest of the local college. Blairtown saw the Warriors turn in a 3-0 victory over Trenton State Teachers College. It was the second victory in as many outings thus far this season for the charges of Coach Howard DeNikie. Blairtown High is slated to send its soccer team to the ESSTC-Ithaca College game on Saturday, November 1, also on the Normal Hill field.

Harry Obitz, head golf pro at Shawnee Inn and Country Club, and two assistants, Dick Farley and Jack Ryan, are doing some quail hunting in Red Cloud, Neb., at the present time. Red Cloud is the winter residence of Obitz, the popular pro at the Moose County resort during the summer months. Carl Gatski, who played third base for Mahanoy City, Hazleton and Bangor, all members of the now defunct class "D" North Atlantic League, at one time or another, had a brother playing end for West Chester against ESSTC last night. The end is Ronald Gatski, who holds down the wing position on offense. The freshman griddler, like brother Carl, is a resident of Hazleton.

In Brookville High's recent 45-0 victory over Kane, the charges of Coach Ben Jones gained 311 yards rushing and 151 in the air for a grand total of 462 yards, while Kane picked up 151 yards by rushing and only 15 by passing. It was the fifth win in six outings for the Brookville contingent. Jones is a graduate of Stroudsburg High and East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

I still can't understand how or why the athletic schedule makers can allow a situation to occur such as the one that confronts the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg area on Saturday, November 15. As pointed out yesterday, there are three local football games on tap for that day, with each kickoff listed for 2 p.m. Instead of arranging the schedule in such a manner as to insure East Stroudsburg High, ESSTC and Stroudsburg High of good crowds singularly, the schedule was allowed to pile up in such a manner as to almost guarantee that each school will draw small crowds comparative to what they could and should be this season.

Virtually everyone in the area wants to see the East Stroudsburg-Nazareth game this season, while annually every grid fan in this area seeks to see the usually powerful Northampton High grid machine in action against Stroudsburg. In addition ESSTC plays its initial football game with Arnold and the contest to be played on Normal Hill is certainly attracting its share of pre-game interest. Instead of big crowds at each contest, there will be split up factions in the stands. Another oddity in the makeup of the schedule is the fact that each game is important to the home teams.

This column attempted to do something about the conflicting schedules in the local area in re-school have avoided conflicts all season. However, just when interest is at fever pitch, everything moves into the act at exactly the same time. East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg haven't played at home on the same date thus far this season, but Saturday, November 15 breaks what appeared to be a non-conflicting schedule.

West Chester Machine Crushes ESSTC Crew

Warriors No Match For Powerful Rams

West Chester, (AP)—A powerful West Chester State Teachers College eleven routed East Stroudsburg Teachers last night to annex its fourth straight win of the season and the Rams' 28th straight victory here at Wayne Field. The Rams started fast, piling up a 21-0 lead before the Warriors got their feet on the ground. "Patsy" Gazzillo scored on a three-yard plunge, Earl Hersh went over the double chalk mark on an 18-yard sprint and Alex Netman tallied on a four-yard buck, all in the first period. Jimmy Hagan raced 40 yards in the second quarter to give the Rams a 28-0 lead at the halfway mark.

Second Half
West Chester pushed over two more six-pointers in the third quarter after Tony Karpatis broke the ice with a pass interception and then ran 23 yards to the 11. Fred Prender, veteran halfback, scored from the one, and six minutes later the Rams clinched an 80-yard drive with Ray Spafford's 14-yard scoring pitch to Al Unger. Tony Mosteller added the extra points after five of the six touchdowns scored.

Jockeys In Major Role
Baltimore, (AP)—Larry MacPhail leads the two jockeys to have a great deal to do with winning today's Pimlico Special between his General Staff and Greentree's One Hitter.

"In a two-horse race it gets down to a race between the jockeys," said the owner. "The horses have to run an entirely different race than they normally do with several in the field."
Example
"For instance, General Staff likes to come from behind but you can't hold him unless you choke him to death if some other horse isn't out there setting a fast pace. One Hitter won't go out and make the pace, either, so it should be an interesting race."

The jockeys who will have to make up the horses' minds whether to go ahead or stay back during the mile and three sixteenths race are Ted Atkinson on One Hitter and Glenn Lasswell on General Staff. Atkinson is by far the more experienced hand, the 36-year-old Canadian having ridden two past Special winners, including One Hitter two years ago.

Columbia Coach Offers Apology
Philadelphia, (AP)—Coach Lou Little yesterday publicly apologized for criticizing an official in the Penn-Columbia game last Saturday.

Little had commented that he thought the official, Jim Coogan was "unnecessarily fastidious" in calling a pass interference penalty that gave Penn the deciding touchdown in a 27-14 victory. The Columbia coach made his comment after viewing movies of the game.

Changes Made
He changed his mind and apologized to Coogan after a series of machine gun camera pictures taken by the Philadelphia Sunday Bulletin, clearly depicted the interference on the part of defensive back Dave Nass.

East Stroudsburg Invades Wilson Boro

Cavaliers Out To Land Sixth Verdict

East Stroudsburg High faces its most important football game of the season thus far and probably the toughest opposition to stand in the path of the Cavaliers since opening day, as the forces of Coach Jack Kist invade Wilson Borough today, hopeful of landing their sixth straight victory without a defeat. The kickoff is slated for 2 p.m.

The Cavaliers, enjoying their best season in the history of football at the N. Courtland St. school, will be at full strength for today's battle, except for Paul "Candy" Mil-

Bangor High Scores Seven Touchdowns While Rolling Over Coplay Foe Under Lights, 45-6

Bangor—Bangor High's grid machine rolled to a convincing 45-6 victory over Coplay High here at Memorial Park last night, with a small crowd on hand to see the Slaters even their current record at three victories and the same number of setbacks.

The game was close during the first half, but once the third stanza got under way there was no doubt about the outcome of the battle.

East Stroudsburg Junior High Falls Before Lehigh, 27-7

Lehigh—East Stroudsburg Junior High School went down to its third football defeat of the season here yesterday, as Lehigh Junior High scored a 27-7 decision over the charges of Coach Mike Evans, on the winning club's home grounds.

The Indians broke a scoreless deadlock with two touchdowns in the second quarter to lead 12-0 at the halfway mark.

Clinch Victory
Lehigh came back with two more touchdowns in the third stanza and then wound up the scoring for the day with a safety in the final round.

The junior Cavaliers averted a shutout in the fourth quarter when Dick Kane scored on an end-around play from the 20-yard stripe. Kane also scored the extra point on a similar play. East Stroudsburg's scoring march covered 40 yards.

Don Hough tallied two touchdowns, while Tom Koons and Bob Sals each scored one sixpointer. Koons also rushed over with the extra point.

An unidentified Lehigh line-man was responsible for the safety. East Stroudsburg plays Hackettstown next Friday, at Memorial Stadium, at 3:30 p.m.

Turpin Surrenders European Crown
London, (AP)—England's Randy Turpin yesterday surrendered his European middleweight title. He formerly held the world middleweight championship.

Manager George Middleton said Turpin was giving up the European crown because being ordered to defend it at any time might clash with a possible world championship fight.

Triple Champs
Turpin is still a triple champion, British middle- and light-heavyweight, and British Empire middleweight. He won the latter title on Tuesday by outpointing South American George Angelo in a 15-round bout.

Fairmont, W. Va., (AP)—Fairmont State, unbeaten and untied, rolled to its fourth triumph yesterday by smothering winless Salem 32-7 in a West Virginia Conference football game.

Boston, (AP)—Passer Jimmy Kane tossed touchdown heaves to Joe Johnson and Mike Mikulics that made up for Boston College miscues and gave the Eagles a hard-earned and breath-taking 14-13 victory over Fordham last night at Braves Field.

Last Period
The Rams did all of their scoring in the fourth period, fullback John Griffin countering twice after his forces had recovered a fumbled punt and a bobbled kickoff.

Mountaineers In Search Of Fourth Victory

Stroudsburg High will be in search of its fourth football victory of the present campaign today, when the Mountaineers tangle with a strong Whitehall High grid machine, at Whitehall. The kickoff is scheduled to take place at 2 p.m.

of averting a third today. Stulgaitis announced last night that Carl Hagerty, hampered with a bad ankle, would be available for defensive duty today and his very presence in the lineup should give the Mountaineers a mental lift.

The Stroudsburg coach also announced that he would stick with the same lineup that has carried the load much of the present campaign, except for right halfback, where Jack Whittle and Benny Miller will share the spot usually occupied by Billy "Bump" Metzger, who is out for the season with injuries.

Karl Weingartner will again direct the club from quarterback, while Don Garaventi runs out of the left half spot and Bill Bailey handles the fullback's duties. Whittle and Miller will share the right half position.

Stroudsburg opened the season with successive victories over Lehigh and Bangor, then fell before Emmaus and Palmerton in that order, before returning to the victory column against Palmerton.

The Mountaineers enjoyed an open date in their schedule last weekend and hope that the extra practice will enable the maroon and white colors to fly from the victory pole today.

Despirito needed two winners to qualify for that select group when he accepted eight mounts on today's Rockingham Park cards. He collected his 299th win on J. J. Crowley's Printers Devil in the third race and then achieved his ambition by bringing Henry Forrest's Master Brian home in front in the ninth and final race.

Charles Bangs Out Decision Over Brion

By Murray Rose
New York, (AP)—Swinging viciously from the opening bell, a grimly determined Ezzard Charles hammered out a one-sided 10 round decision over game, strong Cesar Brion of Argentina in a nationally telecast bout last night from Madison Square Garden. Brion, a five to one underdog, outweighed the former heavyweight king, 196 1/2 to 186 1/2.

Charles went gunning for a knockout from the start and although he handed the Argentina husky a fearful pasting, he couldn't bring the six foot two Brion down. He opened a cut over Brion's left cheekbone and hurt him several times but the strong, 25-year-old South American just wouldn't surrender.

There was no doubt what the decision would be. Referee Ruby Goldstein scored for Izzy, 7-2-1 while the two judges, Harold Barnes and Joe Agnello both had the Cincinnati Negro in front, 7-3. The AP scorecard had Charles the winner, 8-2.

Wins Third
Brion won the third round when he pulled Charles all over the ring, using his 10 and a quarter pound weight edge to good advantage. He was awarded the eighth when the referee took the round away from Charles for a low left.

Outside of those two rounds, and a close fourth, it was all Charles in an action-packed battle that brought cheers from the crowd of 5,758 which paid $17.605.

In the very first round, Charles hurt Brion with a sizzling left-right combination and in the second he caught Cesar coming in and planted a left hook to his chin which shook the tall invader down to his toes.

Brion, known as a clutch and spoiler because of his awkward style and holding tactics was cheered all the way for his blistering stand. Slowed down by slashing body blows and fiery left and right combinations to the head, Brion held on desperately in the fifth. That brought a warning from the referee to "cut out the holding."

Bangor Exchange Club To Feature Professional Wrestling Program At Blue Valley Auditorium

Bangor—Professional wrestling makes its State Bell debut Thursday, November 6, at the Bangor Exchange Club's Blue Valley Auditorium between Bangor and Pen Argyl.

Believing many a State Bell TV wrestling fan is secretly frustrated by television's one-way sound system, Exchange officials and Jim Slavin, well known Wilkes-Barre sports promoter, got together on what may be the first in a series of in-the-flesh TV star bouts with no holds barred and booby unlimited. Beneficiary will be the Exchange Club's building fund.

And speaking of flesh, it's quite a hunk promoter Slavin's featuring in the evening's main go. None other than Man Mountain

Dean Jr., budding protégé of a famous father, billed as a hulking giant with the stealth of a cat, who has thrown more wrestlers out of the ring than any matman on the national scene today. He scales 350 pounds.

His worthy opponent: Ihs Di Paoli, Italian champ who in the brief eight months he's been in America has been living up to his foreign reputation. Built like a "sturdy oak," Di Paoli goes well over 300. They will be a one fall to a finish match.

Local Color
A bit of local color in the Australian tag team match finds Jim Stefanou, of Bethlehem, and Arnold Skoland, of Chicago, pitted against Johnny Heidenman, Bronx, N.Y., "bad boy" and the equally vicious Abe "Boston Billy Goat" Coleman.

Heidenman caused a near riot at Wilkes-Barre last year when he stomped all over an unconscious opponent on the ring apron. His partner, Coleman, a "sawed off giant," makes a specialty of a flying buck to an opponent's mid-section. But they meet two veteran, cagey and wily opponents in Stefanou and Skoland. Big Jim and handsome Arnold promise some surprises of their own.

The opening match brings together George Babish, former Fordham football star, and Ed "Strangler" White, of Birmingham, Ala. Here it's a question of which specialty—Babish's flying tackle or White's strange hold—gets there "fastest with the most."

Delaware Water Gap

Miss Rachel Hall, of Easton, is spending the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Hornbeck have rented the Gray cottage on lower Main Street and will soon move there.

There is an almost constant procession of trucks loaded with dirt or stone that go down Main Street and to the end of Broad Street or into the road which passes Gehm's. Two flagmen are stationed all day at the triangle in front of Deer Head Inn and at the intersection of Broad and Cherry Creek Lodge road to insure the safety of touring cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Lambert have returned from the trip taken to celebrate their 22nd wedding anniversary. They visited relatives in Mount Holly, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Voegler and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Strait. Mount Holly is Mrs. Lambert's birthplace.

Thursday was Alan Reinhardt's birthday.

Sgt. Chester A. Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barnes, is spending a 15-day furlough with his parents. On October 29 he will leave for Camp Gordon, Ga., where he is stationed.

News of the road changes here brought David Newhart back to see what is being done. He has been in Washington, D.C. for two years with his granddaughter, Mrs. Cecil Brown. He was born in the Gap and lived here for over 80 years. He flew by plane to Allentown airport and was met by the Mackeys, of Belvidere, N.J., with whom he spent two weeks. This week he has been orienting himself with the changes here. After a week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Newman, of Bangor he will return to the city. He states that Mrs. Brown, formerly Ruth Schampore of the Gap, a registered nurse, is busy in the hospital and also taking a special course at George Washington University where she will graduate in May. She then will go to William and Mary College in Virginia for an eight month course.

Federation Hears Talk By Dilworth

Richardson Dilworth, district attorney of Philadelphia County, was the guest speaker at the 12th annual banquet of the United Northampton Social Organization Inc., which includes Monroe County, held Thursday night at the Helierton American Legion home.

Dilworth addressed the 556 persons on the duties of government in maintaining certain services which he said should be kept at a minimum, although there were some which could not be provided by private enterprise. He advocated conservation of national resources.

Bertram J. Murphy, Reading, president of the State Federation of Fraternal and Social Organizations, spoke on the work of that group.

John P. Reslie, Bethlehem, president of the host group, presided and Burgess Earl E. Schaffer was toastmaster. Dancing and a floor show were provided.

The Monroe County CLU was represented by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laise, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shaffer, Thomas Sexton, Robert Stine, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knob, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Roth, Bertha Staples and Frances Phillips.

Living Church Topic Chosen By Pastor

The basics of "The Living Church" will be presented in the East Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church tomorrow at 11 a.m. during the morning worship by Rev. Frank W. Wingerter. The chorus, under the direction of Walter Schough will sing "Send Out Thy Light" and "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light."

Rebecca Ella Christian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christian will receive the sacrament of infant baptism.

The youth of the church will gather at 6 p.m. There will be a session for the Junior High and the Senior High.

Parents of little children are requested to bring them to church during the worship service. The women of the Auxiliary have provided a nursery for the little ones at the holy hour.

At 7:30 p.m. the pastor and many members of the congregation will join the congregations of almost every Protestant Church in Monroe County for a Reformation worship service in the Methodist Church of Stroudsburg. Beside an inspiring sermon there will be a choir composed of over a hundred voices. They will sing "Gloria in Excelsis" and "Rock of Ages."

Methodists To Build New Parsonage

Cherry Valley — St. Luke's Church was host to five churches of the Cherry Valley Methodist charge this week with Rev. C. Clyde Levergood, pastor, presiding.

It was decided to hold an evangelism program for eight days, beginning Nov. 16. Rev. Russell Proudt, of Bristol, will speak. All services will occur in the local church and it is expected the program will become annual.

Upkeep of the parsonage was also considered and it was decided to sell the parsonage, with the trustees' approval, and receive bids on the cost of a new manse. Trustees of the charge are Andrew Keiser, Cherry Valley; Miles Kirkhuff, Kellersville; Paul H. Albert, Poplar Valley; Clyde Detrick, St. Luke's; and Charles Hobbs, Neola. They were instructed to report plans at the next meeting.

Serving of refreshments culminated the meeting, with the women of St. Luke's church serving as hostesses.

Rev. Blatt Lists Sermon

"The Principles of Protestantism" will be the subject of the Reformation Day message to be presented tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church by the minister, Rev. Frank H. Blatt.

The organist and choir director, Mrs. Lucy Quig, will play as a prelude to the service "Cantabile." The senior choir will sing as an offertory anthem "The Lord's Prayer."

The flowers in the altar vases will be placed by the Mizpah Class in memory of Mrs. Inez Imbt, and the ushers for the service will be Claude Beidler, Russell Drake, Bernard Rowe, and Clinton Warner.

At 7:30 p.m. the members and friends of Zion Church will unite with the churches of the county in a Reformation Service in the Stroudsburg Methodist church.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1952

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Active day in some ways, but may be disappointing in other respects. Be your true enthusiastic, practical self and you will get along.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—Push some matters, let others rest. In free time, take up useful activity. You should have hobbies.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Give a "lift" to the good causes about us—and there are many. You especially can aid with your bold spirit. Be sure your disposition is good.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Grace, sociability, novelty are high points in your make-up, and are needed these times, including this week. Take the top road only.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—Make the most of all good things; do what you should well without misgivings or complaints. Thus can you enjoy the many wonderful "little" things in life so many people miss.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo)—Try it the other fellow's way once in a while. Then try it yours again. Make wise comparisons. Get real rest when you should; be interested in outside activities.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Keep those temptations—Skepticism and Skepticism—out of the picture. Progressive ventures can be worked on without weekly interruptions today.

October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio)—Do what you do quietly. Over excitement may prove injurious. Beware of wreckers. They eventually harm digestion.

November 24 to December 23 (Sagittarius)—Responsiveness and sociability will count this day, too. The "little" things may prove important. Awaken to the grand possibilities about you.

December 24 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Are you using your time and talents the best you know how? If not, you are going to miss dividends others will collect. Cooperation needed.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Detection and analyzing should be very useful this period. Tune them up; dust off your sleeping assets. This will be a week-end for thinking about the tomorrow.

February 21 to March 30 (Pisces)—Perseverance is what this day and next week ask and you with your general ability, should be able to help no end. Others are looking to you.

YOU BOB! TODAY have qualities for success—AND happy living which is most important. You do not seek power or prestige for yourself alone. You do enjoy good times, however, and must be careful not to dissipate energies and health. Be more careful, avoid impatience. Birthdate of: Adm'l. Richard E. Hirt, aviation pioneer; Georges Bizet, great-Fr. music composer; Thos. Babington (Lord) Macaulay, noted Eng. essayist, statesman.

Homecoming To Be Observed

Water Supply Normal Despite Lack Of Rain

Lock Haven (AP)—Boyd Keller, Lock Haven water superintendent yesterday forecast that unless there is "a decent rainfall" the city will be without water by the end of next week.

The Susquehanna River reading was 7.13 feet today, the lowest ever remembered in the city. At Renovo, up the Susquehanna, the readings were negative.

The area hasn't had a substantial rainfall since three weeks ago when over an inch fell without making any impression on the bone-dry land. Weather bureau figures show the rainfall in Lock Haven this month is .7 of an inch below last year.

The situation was not widespread, however, according to a report by William A. Curnow, Stokes Mill, of the Monroe County Water Supply Co.

"We have plenty of water and we're not at all worried," he said.

Curnow said the source of about two thirds of the borough's water—a spring at Stokes Mill—had shown no falling off at all.

The other third is supplied from a storage reservoir which has lowered only slightly, Curnow added.

And, he pointed out, in the event of emergency the borough could tap other water supply sources as it has in the past. One such emergency source would be the ground spring in Stroud Township in the Wigwam Park area (not Wigwam Lake) which the borough used for supplemental water a year or two ago.

Henry Lesoine, superintendent of East Stroudsburg, said that borough's reservoir supply had dropped slightly too, but not enough to worry about. "We have plenty," he said.
